

FINANCIAL AID LISTINGS

Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) www.fafsa.ed.gov

The FAFSA application is required to apply for financial aid, such as the PELL Grant, HOPE Grant and HOPE Scholarship.

Georgia Career Information System (GCIS) www.gcic.peachnet.edu

$10 billion in scholarships. Log In and User ID available in Career Resource Center.

Georgia Futures www.gafutures.org

Information about HOPE Grant and other Georgia specific grant and scholarship programs.

Georgia Student Finance Commission www.gsfc.georgia.gov

Information on student loans and other scholarship/grants. Service-cancelable loans for critical shortage health and education careers.

America's Career InfoNet www.acinet.org

An internet-based Career One Stop. Go to Education and Training and find more information on scholarships.

Super College "Get Into and Pay for Any College" www.supercollege.com

Launch a free database of over 2.2 million college scholarships, grants, fellowships and contests worth more than $15 billion. Efficiently organize your awards with "favorites," "discards," and "ratings."

CollegeNET www.collegenet.com

Launch a free version of a scholarship finder database which contains 500,000+ private sector awards.

The Foundation Center www.foundationcenter.org/focus/education

Information on funders and types of funding, including grants to individuals. Access to funder database at Atlanta Foundation Center office.

FinAid The Smart Student Guide to Financial Aid www.finaid.org

The Search for scholarships that make up your profile. Includes FAQ's, a glossary of financial aid terms.

Scholarship Help A Guide to the Internet for Scholarship Seekers www.scholarshiphelp.org

Allows you to access websites specifically designed to help scholarship seekers visit scholarship websites to learn more about the judging, and, in some cases, apply for scholarships on-line.

fastWeb www.fastWeb.com

Search through this website to view over 400,000 private scholarships, fellowships, grants and student loans available to students.

Big Future by The College Board www.bigfuture.collegeboard.com

$15 billion in scholarships. Search the web site for articles with helpful information regarding the scholarship applications process and preparation of the application essay.