

ARC Regional Economic Competitiveness Strategy

July 28, 2023

The Atlanta Regional Commission (ARC) is the designated Economic Development District (EDD) for the 11-county region by the Economic Development Administration (EDA). The EDD helps lead the locally-based, regionally driven economic development planning process that leverages the involvement of the public, private and non-profit sectors to establish a strategic blueprint (i.e., an economic development roadmap) for regional collaboration. This is known as the Comprehensive Economic Development Strategy (CEDS). In 2022, the Atlanta Regional Commission Board adopted an update to the region's CEDS, which aims to foster economic prosperity across metro Atlanta, with an emphasis on equity, resiliency, and addressing the needs of the region's underserved communities.

Accelerate economic development to be the U.S. leader for innovation, and rated the #1 global metropolitan area for prosperity, equity, talent, and eliminating poverty.

The CEDS is a strategy-driven plan for regional economic development. A CEDS is the result of a “regionally-owned” planning process designed to guide the economic prosperity and resiliency of an area or region. It provides a coordinating mechanism for individuals, organizations, local governments, and private industry to engage in a meaningful conversation and debate about the economic direction of their region.

What Does the CEDS Do?

A Comprehensive Economic Development Strategy can...

- build on the strengths of a region, as well as identify gaps in resources or expertise that need to be addressed;
- facilitate regional collaboration, expand supply chains, and grow and support new industry clusters;
- assist regions in attracting federal funds and technical assistance by demonstrating resources are used efficiently and effectively;
- make your region more resilient and better positioned to plan for, respond to, and recover from natural disasters and economic shocks; and
- be much more than just a static document, but rather an engaging platform that generates region-wide discussions and serves as a call to action for economic development.

Economic Development Administration (EDA) Requirements

The ARC updates the Comprehensive Economic Development Strategy (CEDS) every five years, as required by the Economic Development Administration (EDA). The EDD is the largest geographic economic generator and policy influencer for the Atlanta MSA and the State of Georgia. The CEDS is a requirement for various EDA and other funding opportunities. ARC adopted the most recent CEDS in 2022. The CEDS process is an opportunity for a collaborative and collective public engagement process to plan for the EDD's future and strives to create bold new regional public-private partnerships. Per the EDA's guidelines, the main components of a CEDS are as follows:

1. Summary Background
2. SWOT (Strengths, Weaknesses, Opportunities, Threats)
3. Strategic Direction/Action Plan
4. Evaluation Framework
5. Economic Resilience

Equity: We represent a belief that there are some things which people should have, that there are basic needs that should be fulfilled, that burdens and rewards should not be spread too divergently across the community, and that policy should be directed with impartiality, fairness and justice towards these ends.

Overarching Reporting Goals & CEDS Specific Goals

The CEDS update was the Region's opportunity to adapt to changing global, national, and local economic conditions and resident needs. It is a post-recession, post-COVID-19 Action Plan to reset the economy. The pandemic added focus to the vulnerability of our population, compounded by a lens on inequity, racism, and poverty, where communities and businesses of color were more impacted by the loss of jobs, income, medical care, and access to education. This CEDS acknowledges the successes of past economic achievements and focuses on practical solutions and optional experimental strategies from business leaders, universities, educational entities, NGOs (non-governmental organizations), and economic development professionals with an expanded base of nontraditional stakeholders (non-profits, faith-based organizations, etc.). Over the next five years ARC and our partners will work together to implement this action-oriented plan.

General EDA Reporting Goals

The updated goals for this strategy are listed below, followed by a more detailed summary of each goal's policies and action items.

1. Coordinatization of federal, state, local and not-for-profit resources/funds to optimize the implementation of the CEDS

- action plan and progress toward attainment of regional goals, objectives, and vision.
2. Implementation of the Action Plan of the CEDS including grant writing, planning and technical assistance, other economic development assistance, training, travel, and other related activities, if directly associated to CEDS Implementation.
 3. EDA program outreach to local member governments to facilitate project development and implementation of strategies to ensure the region's capacity to provide the necessary infrastructure and workforce to attract private investment and encourage the creation and expansion of higher-paying-jobs.
 4. Utilization of the CEDS and CEDS process to foster collaborative regional economic development efforts.
 5. Review Comprehensive Economic Development Strategy (CEDS) for the Region, as appropriate and complete required Performance Progress Reports and Annual Report.

CEDS Goals

1. Build on Previous Successes to Promote the Economic Resiliency and Prosperity of all Residents, Businesses, and Communities in the Region.
2. Reinforce Equity as the Foundation for Regional and Local Initiatives.
3. Focus on Business Innovation to Support the Development and Expansion of Small and Medium Sized Businesses.
4. Ensure the Global and National Competitiveness of the Regional Economy

2023 CEDS Successes

The Implementation chapter of the CEDS has a list of Action Items to assist the Region meet the established goals. The Implementation Timeframe is organized as Year 1, which are immediate actions and Year 5, which will be addressed over time. ARC has focused on completing the Year 1 actions while starting to work on the more long-term Year 5 actions.

Support the collaborative approach to economic development: Regional Marketing Alliance (RMA) meetings and events

What is the Regional Marketing Alliance (RMA) and why is it important?

The Atlanta Regional Marketing Alliance (RMA) was formed in the spirit of collaboration out of the Atlanta Regional Commission's Comprehensive Economic Development Strategy. The Alliance consists of the 11 Metro Atlanta Counties in the Atlanta Region, the Atlanta Regional Commission (ARC), the City of Atlanta (Invest Atlanta), the Metro Atlanta Chamber, Georgia Power Company, and the Georgia Department of Economic Development.

The economic developers of RMA work collaboratively to promote the region by operating as a unit when marketing to site location consultants and real estate brokers while sharing best practices to uplift each county and economic development organization in the Atlanta Region.
